

Breaching

Anything is possible.
Not in a trust Allah God Yahweh
sort of way,
but like
 anything.

Your momma knowing you ate pork in the school cafeteria-type
 anything.

A white supremacist reality tv star running an entire country-type anything.

Your best friend's cousin played the right numbers-type
 anything.

NASA using spacecrafts to redirect orbiting asteroids-type
 anything.

So when some stranger child sitting close to you on the beach points towards the water and yells, "whale!"

You swallow your disbelief and you look.
